

ASSOCIATION OF ART HISTORIANS

Timetable for London Conference, 1975

Friday, 21st March, in the main lecture room of the Courtauld Institute, 20 Portman Square, W.1. (convenient but expensive garage parking is available in the National Car Park in Gloucester Place)

10.30 onwards Reception, and coffee. (Information available all day from Miss Pettit or Miss Sassoon, in the entrance hall of the Institute, 01 935 9292)

GROUP MEETINGS, primarily for the specialists in each field, to discuss matters of interest relating to:

11.30-12.30 I UNIVERSITIES. Chairman - Professor Peter Murray.
Should the growth of art history courses in universities be subject to some sort of national plan?

Lunch: Please make your own arrangements. The Courtauld Institute student refectory will be open, but it serves only snacks and coffee.

2.00-3.00 II ART HISTORY IN ART EDUCATION. Chairman - Mr. Philip Barlow
i the role of the art historian in Polytechnics and Colleges of Art
ii the history of design

3.30-4.30 III MUSEUMS AND PUBLIC ART GALLERIES. Chairman - Professor Michael Jaffé; guest speakers Mr. Dennis Farr and Dr. Michael Kauffmann.
Museums and Art Historians

5.00-6.30 VISITS TO THE DULWICH COLLEGE PICTURE GALLERY, AND TO PRIVATE COLLECTIONS.
(The bus for Dulwich will leave from 20 Portman Square at 5.00, prompt, arriving back at Portman Square at 7.0. Bus fare: 50p)

Lists of visitors to private collections will be posted at the Courtauld Institute on Friday March 21st, or telephone for information.

8.30-10.30 RECEPTION FOR THE ASSOCIATION AT THE NATIONAL GALLERY, AT THE INVITATION OF THE TRUSTEES.
(Personal invitations will be sent to those requesting them, or will be available on March 21st at the Courtauld Institute: these must be produced on arrival at the Gallery. See pro forma sheet attached)

ASSOCIATION OF ART HISTORIANS

Timetable for London Conference, 1975

Friday, 21st March, in the main lecture room of the Courtauld Institute, 20 Portman Square, W.1. (convenient but expensive garage parking is available in the National Car Park in Gloucester Place)

10.30 onwards Reception, and coffee. (Information available all day from Miss Pettit or Miss Sassoon, in the entrance hall of the Institute, 01 935 9292)

GROUP MEETINGS, primarily for the specialists in each field, to discuss matters of interest relating to:

11.30-12.30 I UNIVERSITIES. Chairman - Professor Peter Murray.
Should the growth of art history courses in universities be subject to some sort of national plan?

Lunch: Please make your own arrangements. The Courtauld Institute student refectory will be open, but it serves only snacks and coffee.

2.00-3.00 II ART HISTORY IN ART EDUCATION. Chairman - Mr. Philip Barlow
i the role of the art historian in Polytechnics and Colleges of Art
ii the history of design

3.30-4.30 III MUSEUMS AND PUBLIC ART GALLERIES. Chairman - Professor Michael Jaffé; guest speakers Mr. Dennis Farr and Dr. Michael Kauffmann.
Museums and Art Historians

5.00-6.30 VISITS TO THE DULWICH COLLEGE PICTURE GALLERY, AND TO PRIVATE COLLECTIONS.
(The bus for Dulwich will leave from 20 Portman Square at 5.00, prompt, arriving back at Portman Square at 7.0. Bus fare: 50p)

Lists of visitors to private collections will be posted at the Courtauld Institute on Friday March 21st, or telephone for information.

8.30-10.30 RECEPTION FOR THE ASSOCIATION AT THE NATIONAL GALLERY, AT THE INVITATION OF THE TRUSTEES.
(Personal invitations will be sent to those requesting them, or will be available on March 21st at the Courtauld Institute: these must be produced on arrival at the Gallery. See pro forma sheet attached)